11 streets are merely renamed to the existing names of streets changed by the Municipal Council themselves in accordance with the provisions of Sec 58 (K) of the Municipalities Act. The Municipality is very prompt in Zealous in granting as prayed in the objection merely to a street being named as Wimbledon now in the city.

In the present case, the blocks already called as "Jaljaw Ken" the people of the locality are stated to have made request for its being named as "B 7 oil-mill block" or "oil mill block" the Municipality have resolved to call it as "Bridge block" There is no reason to change it suggest the matter may be left to the Municipality as it is.

It is not clear why a reference was sought to be made to Govt by the President the papers can be returned to him with the observation that the Municipality may itself dispose of the case as it thinks best and no reference to Govt need have been made I see no reason why Govt should be involved in this matter
